How well do you know your faith?

1. In the broad sense, the priesthood is the offering of _____ and _____ on behalf of others.
2. The priesthood of Jesus Christ is unique when compared to any other in that the _____ and the _____ are united in the same person.
3. The prophecy of Christ's sacrifice priesthood is found in what Old Testament book?
4. What tribe of the Israelites was appointed by God to be the priests for the entire Hebrew people?
5. The sacrifice made at each Mass is the _____ and the _____; the sacrifice offered at each Mass is the _____ and _____. The bread and wine is transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ and offered to the _____ so that we may receive and participate in this sacrifice.
6. The ministerial priesthood is at _____ of the common priesthood. Who makes up the ministerial priesthood? Who makes up the common priesthood?
7. We should see our lives as ordered to the _____ of others.
8. These two saints and apostles were martyred in Persia. This saint known as "The Zealot" (Lk 6:15; Acts 1:13) because of his hard adherence to Jewish law, was one of the first disciples of Jesus. According to the tradition in the West, he preached in Egypt and Mesopotamia, and then in Persia where he was martyred. The second saint was known as Thaddeus and is listed as a disciple of Christ in several books of the New Testament. He is also known as Judas, son of James, in John 14:22 (not Iscariot). According to custom, he is considered the brother of St James the Less and reputed author of an epistle that bears his name. He is venerated as the patron saint of lost causes. They both share the same feast day of October 28th. Name them.
9. Which of the following was not a parable told by Jesus?
 - A. Parable of the Good Samaritan
 - B. Parable of the Lost Coin
 - C. Parable of the Rich Fool
 - D. Parable of the Lost Sheep
 - E. Parable of the Feast of the Tabernacles
10. Who said, "He must increase; I must decrease?"
