How well do you know your faith?

1. The parable from last weekend's Gospel is known as what? What Gospel is it taken from? Of the four Gospels how many have this parable?
2. In this parable the father is an image of whom? The sons are images of whom?
3. Listed below are some traits of the younger son. Which are not true?
 - A. He was very disrespectful to his father in demanding his share of his inheritance before his father's death
 - B. To add insult to injury he leaves his father's home within a few days of getting half of everything
 - C. He has perfect contrition while sitting amongst the pigs, pondering his life and the situation he now is in.
 - D. He did not anticipate the loving way his father greeted him when he came home.
4. The elder son does not know his father well. He has stayed and done all that he was asked, but never saw his father as merciful only as _____.
5. We need to love God simply because he is _____. There is nothing we can do or sacrifice that would put us on the level of what he has done for _____ yet he is always _____ to us.
6. Born in Umbria Italy on April 13, 655, he became Pope after serving in Constantinople. Shortly after his election as pope, he called a council at the Lateran in Rome in order to condemn the heretics who denied that Christ had a human will. The same Council condemned a document promulgated by the Emperor Constans II, who had him kidnapped even though he was ill, and taken back to Constantinople where he was thrown in prison. He was tried and convicted, without being heard by the Senate, and sent back to prison. His life was spared at the plea of the dying Patriarch Paul of Constantinople, and he was exiled to Kherson in the Crimea, where he died on Sept 16 of neglect and ill treatment. He was the last pope to die a martyr. Who is he?
7. What prayer is omitted at all Masses during Lent?
8. On what Sunday during Lent does the priest bless palms? What event in the life of Jesus do the palms recall for us?
9. What word is never said or sung at Mass during Lent?
10. When does Lent end?

April is the month of the Holy Eucharist

Holy Church is the guardian of the Holy Eucharist. For two thousand years, she has guarded this treasure, administering it to the faithful and proclaiming that it is nothing less than Jesus himself. We can never be too devoted to the Blessed Sacrament or show it too much honor.

Spy Wednesday - The name for the Wednesday of Holy Week. This alludes to Judas agreeing with the Sanhedrin to betray Jesus. (Matthew 26: 3-5, 14-16)

Maundy Thursday - This is an ancient name for Holy Thursday that comes from Jesus' words that day, "I give you a new commandment. . ." (John 13: 34) Maundy comes from the Latin meaning "mandatum," which means commandment.

Shear Thursday - This name for Holy Thursday came about because of an ancient practice of trimming hair and beard that day as a sign of spiritual preparation for Easter.

Don't deceive people with the word "mercy."
God forgives sins only if we repent of them.

~ Cardinal Sarah

To fall in love with God is the greatest romance;

To seek him the greatest adventure;

To find him, the greatest human achievement.

~ St Augustine of Hippo

Don't say:

"That person gets on my nerves"

Think:

"That person sanctifies me."

~ St Josemaria Escriva
