The Epiphany of the Lord

<http://www.vatican.va> Paragraph 486

The Father's only Son, conceived as man in the womb of the Virgin Mary, is "Christ", that is to say, anointed by the Holy Spirit, from the beginning of his human existence, though the manifestation of this fact takes place only progressively: to the shepherds, to the magi, to John the Baptist, to the disciples. Thus the whole life of Jesus Christ will make manifest "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power."

Divine Mercy Academy

Is hiring for a long term substitute teacher, from January to June 2021, for its 6-8th grade classroom. Please email board@dmamt.org for a job description and application information.

If You Contract COVID-19 -

Or if someone in your household does, please refrain from attending Mass until you are out of the quarantine period. Also, please notify the parish immediately, so that we can quickly become aware if an outbreak is traced to a particular weekend. Thus far, numerous parishioners have had the virus but all have responded appropriately, thus protecting the health of others and preventing an outbreak in the parish that would require its temporary closure. Your pastor, staff and volunteers are working diligently to keep Masses safe for everyone to attend, and we thank everyone for observing the bishop's directives which contribute to this end and keep the sacraments available. Please also remember that the bishop's dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains in effect.

The Epiphany Of the Lord

Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.
